Much storm instrance written in the last few days.

The Easter services at the Methodist church Sunday were very impressive. Rev. J. J. Baird filler the pulpit at 11 a. m. and Rev. F. C. Lee at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. T, R. Spalding is said to be able to be about again.

Easter Sunday at Mashulaville.

The people of this place and surround ing neighborhood are still expressing themselves over an enjoyable Easter.

The services Sunday were held in the Baptist church, the Methodist church not being large enough to hold the con gregation. The church was neatly and artistically decorated with ivy and pet plants. The choir, under the direction of Miss Ethel Dorroh, sang with an unusual element of praise and harmony. and the selections were especially enjoyed. Services were conducted by Rev. E. D. Simpson, of the M. E. church, South, whose sermon on the "Risen Lord" was attentively heard. After the sermon, Prof. J G Chandler offered a heartfelt prayer, beautifully holding up the crucified Lord and his resurrection. Services closed with the Doxology and benediction.

Children's Day exercises were given in the Baptist church Sunday night ACFant with a still larger congregation. The win church was decorated appropriately for the occasion. The whole program, which was read by Rev. E. D. Simpson, was carried out without a mistake-Their subjects revolved around the Cross and Tomb.

The successful manner in which the program was carried out is due to the efforts of Miss Ethel Dorroh, whose training, individuality and love for children make her one of the best primary teachers and entertainment organizers in the state.
